

Room Two Camp to Nelson

Last week I went helped out with Tom's camp to Nelson and had a great time. Tom had planned a busy action packed week with a mix of educational and recreational activities. The children were a credit to the school, which was commented on by the organisations we visited.

Huge thanks to Jarrah, Jane, Janet and Amanda for staying the week with us and to Daniel, Mary and Alice for transport and support.

Room Two Camp

Room 2's Miraculous Camp at Tahuna Camp!!!!

Last week Room 2 from Motupipi School went to Flip Out as part of their beyond awesome camp. "I felt excited when we got there," said Angus. When we got there, everyone was waiting to go to the best Flip Out in the world. When we got to Flip Out, everyone put socks on, but one person put a sock on top of a plaster. At the end she took her sock off and the plaster came off with it!! The worst thing about that is that it was a Flip Out sock and the next person who uses it is going to have a plaster in their sock - ew!! Everyone went straight to the legit foam pit. People did crazy flips. Kahu did magnificent flips. "I bet he felt fantastic," I said to myself. "That was beyond miraculous, it was a flipping awesome time," said Charlie. It was a superlative day... By Carmyn B

Room Two Rules the Wave Pools.

Last week the awesome Room Two kids from Motupipi School went on their outstanding school camp at Tahuna, They were going to the fabulous wave pools." This is going to be awesome," shouted Olive, my best friend, as we were driving to the Wave Pool. When we got inside, I ran and did a big splash into the wave pool. It was so warm. Ruby nearly gave me a heart attack when she jumped into the pools, she did a big belly flop. Mr C, our principal, was throwing all the students into the water and Mr M, our teacher, was pushing all the kids off their floaties whenever a wave came. Mr M tried to hop on one, but he fell straight off the floaty. Malika kept on saying "I can still taste all that chlorine in my mouth, it's disgusting!" We were just driving back to the awesomest superb most jaw dropping camp at the time.

Room One Scraffitto Art
Autumn brought falling leaves and beautiful colours that have been captured in Room One's Scraffitto Art. After carefully observing the details in a range of different shaped leaves the children scratched the outline into a prepared background of solid crayon colours, over painted with black paint. The results are spectacular!

I really enjoyed the end result, it was worth it! Ollie

I really liked making the leaf shapes and I have always enjoyed scraffitto art...all the hard work turns out really beautiful!
